

Section 12: Pre-Camp Preparations

12.1 Time Line

Oct 2009

(Schedule 3) shows the Time Line that a Camp Director should follow in order to be ready for camp. While this is not written in stone, we would caution any Camp Director about falling too far behind. Remember, the Director of Programming has many resources to help you should help be required.

12.2 Staff & Campers

12.2.1 Adult Leader Application & Health Information Form

Oct 2009

A sample Adult Leader Application & Health Information Form is included at (Form 3). The Camp Director may amend this form as he/she sees fit, keeping in mind the following information:

1. It must remain an 'Application' giving the Society the right to refuse any request without explanation.
2. All honorariums are established from-time-to-time by the Board and can not be amended by the Camp Director.
3. All basic personal & medical information should be included.
4. The two references are mandatory.
5. The waiver, as detailed below, must not be changed without Board approval.

"I understand that leadership positions have honorariums with meals and lodging provided. Leadership positions are subject to the approval of the Camp Director and the Rock Lake United Church Camp Society. Further this is my permission for the Official-in-Charge or his/her designate to obtain the necessary surgical or medical attention in the event of serious illness or injury".

6. The application must be signed & dated by the applicant.

Note: If the Cabin Leader is 18 years of age or older, then he/she should fill out an Adult Leader Agreement.

12.2.7 Staff Employment Contract

Apr 2019

A Staff Employment Contract is included at (Form 21). This form can not be amended in any manner without Board approval.

12.3 Programs

Oct 2009

It is the responsibility of the Camp Director in conjunction with the Society's Program Director to develop a theme and a name for each camp. This theme must clearly follow the philosophies and objectives of the Society as detailed in (Section 1) of this Manual. As much as the camp program as is possible (teaching, games, crafts, special events, etc.) should follow this theme. All components of the camp must be directed towards the specific age group of the campers.

12.3.1 Bible Study Program

Oct 2009

The Bible Study can be purchased, should the camp budget allow, or developed in-house. The program must be detailed enough to justify our existence as a Vacation Bible Camp, yet simple enough to reach the campers at their age level.

The program should follow the basic Christian doctrine of 'Love Thy Neighbour' with no particular emphasis on specific worship rituals of any Christian church.

12.3.2 Music Program

Oct 2009

Music is a very important part of camp and it is vital that along with the traditional 'fun' campfire songs,'

Christ centred songs are also included.

12.3.3 Craft Program

Oct 2009

Crafts, should be 'keepers' that the campers can take home. Remember girls tend to be much more interested in crafts than do boys.

12.3.4 Games Program

Oct 2009

The Games Activity Leader must be aware of the possibilities of sunstroke and dehydration at camp and schedule games appropriate for the weather. Remember boys like more vigorous games than girls.

12.3.5 Special Events

Oct 2009

Any special events run at camp should be organized to take advantage of our beautiful surroundings. The lake, the trails, the woods, etc., should always be used to their potential.

12.3.6 Christian Component

Feb 2015

Besides Bible study time, the camp should include other components of daily Christian living at the discretion of the Camp Director. These could include, but are not limited to, Grace before meals, a daily Chapel, a daily Devotional during quiet time and a Morning Watch teaching.

12.4 Schedule

Mar 2014

A sample camp schedule is included at (Schedule 5). The one is included here as an aid only. The Camp Director may make changes to format as he/she sees fit.

12.5 Camp Brochure

Feb 2015

A sample camp brochure is included at (Form 18). The one included here as an aid only. The Camp Director may make changes as he/she sees fit.

The brochure or any other advertising must include the camp's Mission Statement as detailed in (Section 1.1.2).
